Charge and Counter Charge.

And now the Justice committee of investigation has reported and they charge swindling, theft, and a generous allowance of other crimes against the Schultz Brothers. They make plain assertions and offer to stockholders the rare consolation of knowing that they have been systematically robbed. They are told in so many words that they have paid assessments which have been misappropriated, and in short that they have been giving their earnings to dishonest men. There is no prospect whatever of the mass of stockholders regaining their investment, and it seems strange that one or two lessons so exhaustive should fail of decided effects. Trustees have stolen from the people ever since the office of Trustee was created, and yet it has never occurred to the fabled that protection was necessary.

The Schultz Brothers bring in an equally damaging charge against the investigators, accusing that accounts have been doctored, and that enmity is the groundwork of the committee report. Now, here is a rare bit of refreshment for stockholders. The money was paid in and according to all accounts no equivalent of labor has been returned. Property has been deeded away and no equivalent in value returned. And when these charges are brought in, extenso, how are they met? With haste and indignation as becomes honest men? Not so. "Old Man Schultz" is reported by the Post as entirely easy in his mind, and not anxious to say anything until policy dictates. He enjoys a tete-a-tete with reporters about the question of his honesty and is in no wise disconcerted by the wrath of people who believe that he has misapplied their money. Time was when men repelled even an insinuation against their honesty, and defended honor with their lives. Now a legal lance is the approved weapon, and quips and quibbles are the means by which manhood is satisfied with itself. In this case there will be charge and counter charge, postponement and new trials, and the affair will end in smoke, with not one stockholder the wiser. Surely there ought to be some protection provided for stockholders.

Oakland is to have a municipal election on Monday and there are but two tickets in the field—Republican and Workingmen. The Democrats refuse to prepare lambs for the slaughter and prefer to hang around outside and see what they can do by themselves. We note among the horny-handed candidates Peter W. Byrne, an old friend who used to affiliate in debate and declamatory exercises at the U. City Attorney is what Peter would rather be, and as he has worked hard to improve himself, we doubt not that he is now a worthy man for even a much higher position. Peter is one of those self-rising loaves which fill any pan. Success to him. We also notice that W. B. Hardy has been named as Republican candidate for Mayor, and the Democrats proposed J. West Martin against him. Mr. Martin refused to run, which will no doubt prove very fortunate for Mr. Hardy. J. West Martin is one of the most perfect gentlemen alive.

You old Pioneers ought to remember Pat Lannan, used to be Justice of the Peace on the Comstock, and won some fame by interpreting the laws in a manner all his own. Well Pat is now in Salt Lake and has turned stump speaker or agitator in his old age. He lately appeared before a meeting and addressed some remarks not complimentary to Gov. Emery. The Governor's friends tried to bulldoze Patrick, but they signally failed and he carried the point at issue by force of reasoning. Good luck to thee Pat, but we can not recall thee without the shades of Pete Larkin, Bruce, Garvey, Ruff Hardy, Ben Ballou, Kettle-Belly Brown, and a host of others rise to remind us of the old days when the Comstock was new, and the bonanza unknown. Such men are always young and it seems that Lannan has just gained his second wind.

The editor of the Times-Review tells how somebody gave him two bottles of champagne and a box of cigars. We never tell of those things.

The Pacific Railroad Sinking Fund Bill.

The Senate Committee on Railroads on the 10th instant unanimously agreed to recommend the passage of the Dorsey Pacific Railroad Sinking Fund Bill, with certain important amendments prepared by Senators Mitchell, Matthews, Dorsey, Ransom and Barnum. The bill, as thus agreed to, is amended by the entire omission of the section which provided for the reconveyance of 12,000,000 acres of land grants to the Government, on condition that the sinking funds should be credited therefor at the rate of $1 25 per acre. The section providing that the Union Pacific and Central Pacific companies should be given the preference for Government business, is also stricken out. The main features of the amended bill are as follows: All monies due these two companies on the 1st day of April next for Government transportation, are to form the nucleus of the proposed sinking fund, the amounts to be made equal by cash payment, if necessary, to at least $1,000,000 for each company. They are thereafter each to pay into the United States Treasury $1,000,000 per year in semi-annual payments, until the year 1900, when the bonds endorsed by the Government become due, the interest to be accumulated semi-annually, at the rate of 6 per cent. a year, upon all amounts thus placed to the credit of the Sinking Fund, and these payments are to be in lieu of the requirements of the present law as to the annual payment of five per cent. of the net earnings and the retention of one-half of the net earnings for government transportation. The balance fund due the United States by the companies in the year 1900 is to be paid in fifty equal semi-annual installments, together with interest on deferred payment, at the rate of interest which shall equal the rate then being paid by the Government on the majority of its security.

MINT FACILITIES FOR COINING SILVER.—Washington, March 11.—Secretary Sherman was before the Committee on Weights and Measures this morning, and gave his views about the proposed measure for issuing certificates of deposits of silver bullion. In this connection the question was discussed as to whether such certificates should merely represent the bullion at its market value, or whether the Government should buy bullion with the certificates. It seemed to be conceded that the certificates should be issued, but the committee came to no conclusion as to details. Dr. Linderman gave information concerning facilities for coining the new silver dollar, and said to double the present capacity would require three additional mints, or three in addition to that at New Orleans. With these $5,000,000 or $6,000,000 a month could be coined at present, and making allowance for interruptions, $2,500,000 could be coined a month. This would make $30,000,000 a year. The New Orleans mint could be put in working condition at a cost of $50,000 or $75,000 so as to coin $1,000,000 a month. This added to the coinage of the other mints, would make $42,000,000 a year.

Representative Wren introduced a bill in the House Monday authorizing the citizens of the States of California, Nevada, Colorado or any Territory to take timber from unsurveyed mineral lands for mining or domestic purposes under such regulations as the Secretary of the Interior may prescribe to protect undergrowth; provided that no timber shall be cut in mountain regions within three miles of the upper timber line.

The Director of the Mint Monday learned by telegraph from the Philadelphia Mint that the Superintendent expects to receive from the Commissioner the first delivery of the new silver dollar on Wednesday, and that the supply of dies for the same coin will be ready to forward to the San Francisco and Carson Mints by that time.

The raise in Ophir is partly attributed to a fine looking body of ore and rock discovered in a new crosscut in that mine.

A jury weighing 2,500 pounds recently sat on a case in Virginia. The indictment was quashed.

George Elliotts Home Life.

A correspondent says George Elliott's home life is a very charming one. She exercises an active supervision and develops a most comprehensive management and exquisite taste in every detail of the household. In composition she is very slow and methodical, writing not more than from forty to fifty lines a day. When a book is completed she is in such a state of nervous exhaustion that her husband takes her to Italy or Southern France to recuperate. While writing she must be scrupulously arrayed as to person, while every detail of her surroundings must be in harmonious place. Her information is encyclopedic in its extent and as exact as the sciences. She belongs to a materialistic school of thought. What the witty Mrs. French once said of Mme De Stael—that she is "consoling ugly"—will apply to George Elliott, with the reservation, however, that her plain features are so sanctified by her expression that she becomes a very beautiful woman. She is morbidly sensitive in regard to her appearance and certain phases of her life. She has been offered fabulous sums by London photographers if she would sit for her picture, but she has always refused. So far as I know there is not a picture of her in existence. She goes little or none in society, but has weekly receptions to which only a certain class is admitted. She may be often seen at the classical matinees, given every Saturday at St. James's Hall, and occasionally she may be seen on the street with a pair of spanking bays, a very swell carriage and liveried servants.

Great Storm.

Cheyenne advices, 10 inst., say: The U. P. is still blockaded by snow. The western division is open beyond Laramie, but nothing has passed that point eastward. The eastern division is open east of Sydney. Nothing has passed Antelope westward, where No. 3 Passenger, due here Friday, still remains awaiting relief. Several hundred men with shovels, together with a number of plows, have been engaged between Sydney and Laramie, in the endeavor to lift the blockade. The heaviest plow on the road left Laramie Sunday, but stuck at Tie Siding. The snow in the cuts is packed very hard, and the plows which left here eastward at 7 o'clock this (Sunday) morning have not made much progress, returning here at 7 o'clock this (Sunday) evening. The Colorado Central train is at Taylor's Station, 18 miles south, with a plow in the ditch, while the Denver Pacific is ten miles south in a similar predicament. Relief has started from the south for both these trains. No news from the north yet. Reports from Colorado say the Kansas Pacific is badly blocked, and the wrecking train is in the ditch at Box Elder.

The snow storm on the line of the Union Pacific, from Julesburg to Ritter Creek is abating, so that men can work to clear the track.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

Jettings.

Mrs. Bowers continues to corral the wandering ducat, and our citizens know their fate.

Joe Jones is in from Pyramid.

Lyceum meeting this evening. There should be a full attendance.

Stocks are booming to-day. Ophir, 64, California 34, etc., etc. This afternoon's quotations are about the same as on the morning Board.

One hundred and twelve head of cattle were shipped from here to San Francisco this afternoon. Thirteen car loads from Iron Point passed west this morning.

Thirteen cars containing Adam Forepaugh's animals, etc., passed through to San Francisco last evening.

Sheriff Lamb is planting flowers and shrubbery in the Court House yard. Lamb is struggling with the right notion now.

Kearney will canvass this State for the election in '78. His headquarters will be at Reno.

The activity in the cattle trade is proving a good thing for our ranchers, as this influx of stock has enabled them to sell a very large amount of hay. There is a large number of cattle yet to come in, thus ensuring what the farmers want the sale of their hay. We shall next hear of a few big ranchers putting up a corner on hay, and perhaps their getting cinched.

The County Board of Examiners of applicants for teachers' certificates will meet on the 5th and 6th of April. Those who desire certificates will govern themselves accordingly.

Mr. Jaques is building a new house on South Virginia street, nearly adjoining the residence of Mr. Marsh.

Near 1000 head of cattle were sold in Reno yesterday. Part of these go to San Francisco, part to Grass Valley, part to the Meat Shipping Association and a few to Virginia City. Quite a number of cattle men were in town, drawn hither by the sale of the above cattle. Nearly 600 head of these cattle are what are known as the French cattle from Sierra Valley.

Tyrell & Reese, of Virginia City, have at the C. P. freight depot in this place a very large casting just arrived from Philadelphia. We should take it to be a huge blower.

Gold to-day stands 100½ in the shade. Where are the prophets who said gold will advance after the passage of the Silver Bill?

The temperance political party met last evening in the Baptist Church, but transacted little business. Several speeches were made, and the Committee on Resolutions and Permanent Organization given two weeks longer time to report. As the politico-temperance party is one of vast importance to the welfare of this community, we can only wish it unbounded success.

And now the ladies are happy. Gray & Isaacs have just received a large invoice of dry goods.

Justice Richardson, Dr. Dawson and Hank Rhodes, are up before the Storey county Grand Jury to-day. The jury are interviewing them in reference to Ah Breen and Wo Cowie.

Messrs. Tandy & Cook, the new photographers, decamp to-night for Elko. Mr. Budden assumes the old stand.

The citizen's school meeting was postponed until to-morrow night, to give all an opportunity to attend the lyceum, which meets this evening.

AND AGAIN.—Reno seems to be the objective point of every man who wants to supply Nevada with staple articles, or to try the experiment of manufacturing in this State. We are now informed that Mr. Short, who is a large oil producer in Pennsylvania, seeks a western market for his various brands of illuminating oils, and has pitched among Reno as the central point for this section. We shall be pleased to have Mr. Short in any way identified with Reno's interests for he is a man of capital and energy. The oil business must be fair, judging from his letter to his proposed agent.

At Osburn & Shoemaker's drug store, prescriptions—at prices to suit the times—are prepared at all hours of the day and night by a regular graduate of a college of Pharmacy. 2-13tf.

The Proposed Tax.

The citizens and taxpayers of Reno are asked to meet tomorrow evening for the consideration of a special tax upon School District No. 10. The Legislature of 1877 authorized us to levy a special tax of $20,000 if the citizens favored the proposition at the polls, and it is now urged that the needs of the district will justify the extra burden of taxation. There are 315 pupils in our public schools, and the accommodations are inadequate. There are not enough teachers nor is the school room sufficient. It is proposed to build a large and commodious school-house which shall be an honor to the county and ample for the scholars. The question as to cost and pressing necessity are with the citizens for discussion to-morrow and will be fully set forth. There are a few points, however, which might be suggested to our Trustees which would be useful after or before the erection of another school-house. There should be at least one more teacher. To meet this expense we would recommend that Mr. Ring's salary as teacher be cut down, simply because he does not earn what is paid him. Mr. Ring does no more work than any subordinate teacher, and while he occupies the position of Superintendent we do not believe he ought to enjoy an exorbitant salary as principal. If his salary were cut down to a decent figure, another teacher could easily be employed, and expenses could be lessened in this way so as to aid materially in paying the proposed tax. We are aware that through long suffering Mr. Ring has come to think that he has a proprietary interest in the schools of Washoe county, but we have a fashion of speaking as we think, and while he is an average teacher there can be no doubt that he gets more than average pay. We hope that there may be a large attendance at the meeting to-morrow night.

The Meanest on Record.

We all remember the company of men invented by Mark Twain, and how they docked the miner for lost time while he was up in the air, having been raised by a blast. We all know men will resort to strange dodges for money, but we never believed that any Renoite would try to steal a knowledge of his future. Last night while a young man was listening spell-bound to the words of wisdom which fell from the lips of Washoe's seeress, three reckless villains might have been seen at the back window, attentive listeners to the fateful tale. The young man learned that he was beloved by a dark-haired girl, and smiled sweetly at the news. The fat man at the window grinned derisively. The young man then learned that he would marry a red-headed girl with a wart on her instep, and he shuddered at the prospect—the barrister chuckled softly and pushed a card under the window labeled, "Divorces procured without pain."—The young man was then informed that he would have seven children by the red-headed lady, whose name was "Amelia Ann"—whereupon the third eavesdropper, whose girl's name happened to be Amelia Ann, was suddenly convulsed with rage, and struck the casement a sounding blow with his fist. Rover's ghost was the first thing which occurred to the fortune readers, and the young man with a red headed wife and seven children jumped nimbly to the centre table, while the seeress crawled under the lounge with commendable haste. Without all was confusion. The fat man fell over a saw horse while the other two interlopers fled through byways and alleys and were soon lost to view. We submit that this is all wrong, this theft of knowledge, and if anyone wants a redheaded spouse and a few children they ought to pay the seeress for furnishing the same.

JONES & KINKAD MINE.—Mr. J. E. Jones says that a considerable body of water was encountered in the Jones & Kinkad mine when the shaft had been sunk about 400 feet, and that in consequence the work of developing has altogether ceased, and the water is now being taken from the shaft. Mr. Jones will return to the mine to-morrow. It is the intention of the Superintendent to bail the shaft of water and run a crosscut from the 400 foot level. If the water proves too troublesome a crosscut will probably be run from the 350 foot level. Within a month or two the Jones & Kinkad will, we think, make a most favorable showing.

Big Fire in Truckee.

About 6:30 this morning a fire broke out in a Chinese wash house in Truckee, which destroyed the block fronting on Bridge and Church streets, and of which the American House was the principal building. It was a long time before water could be turned on the fire, and in consequence the flames had gained such headway that it was found impossible to control them, and the entire block was destroyed. As far as we are able, at this writing, to learn, the following buildings were burned: Geo. Royal's residence, loss, $800; Geo. Schaefer's residence, loss $1,000; A. C. Cook's residence, loss $900; American House, Stewart McKay, proprietor, loss $6,000; Wm. Irwin's livery stable, a blacksmith shop, a house formerly owned by Wm. Campbell, Geo. Mershon's saloon, and a China wash house. There was probably other property destroyed, which is not included in the above list. The losses mentioned also, are simply approximations. The total loss by the fire will probably reach, and may considerably exceed $20,000. The block burned is in the eastern part of town, and, with the exception of Royal's residence, was entirely burned over in the fall of 1873, or the spring of '73.

WATCHES!! JEWELRY!!

ROMAINE GOLD.
SO EXTENSIVELY WORN IN PARIS. It was first discovered in 1870, by the celebrated French chemist, M. D. De Dalgue, who manufactured it in jewelry, and for five years sold it to the leading jewelers of Paris for Solid Gold. In 1875, when his secret became known, ten of the manufacturing jewelers established a stock company, with a capital of $10,000,000 for the purpose of manufacturing Romaine Gold Jewelry and Watches. With this immense capital and the aid of improved machinery, they are enabled to produce all the latest patterns of jewelry at less than one-tenth the cost of solid gold, and of a quality and color which makes it impossible even for experts to detect it from the genuine.

We have secured the exclusive agency of the United States and Canada, for the sale of all goods manufactured from this metal, and in order to introduce them in the most speedy manner, have put up assorted sample lots as given below, which we will sell at one-tenth the retail value until January 1st, 1878. A Characteristic Letter.

A Delaware literary society, in turning over its papers preparatory to repairing its hall, found many autograph letters from distinguished men—nearly all being responses to notifications of election to honorary membership in the society. One of these, dated 1849, was written by Horace Greeley, and runs thus: "My attainments anywhere near the boundary of scholarship, are so meagre that I dislike to receive such a compliment as your society has paid me. I never spent a day in any sort of a seminary above a common school (which was exceedingly common in my time). Since I was eight years old, I have only seen the inside of a schoolhouse in winter; since fourteen, not at all; and our terms did not average five months per annum in those days. I know a little newspaper Latin and French, and might have mastered a little Greek in the same way, if the barbarians had known enough to use an intelligent alphabet. Of mathematics, I learned what is contained in Adam's arithmetic; of grammar, just enough to see clearly that Lindley Murray knew very little, and blundered shockingly. As to chirography, mine speaks for itself, not clearly as to matter, but quite distinctly enough as to manner. However, I know a little of what may be flashed up on a tolerably busy and ragged journey through the world, having always loved books better than play, and devoured newspapers with insane avidity. Thanking your society for the honor intended me, and meaning to justify it by a faithful obedience to the maxim, live and learn, I remain yours truly,

HORACE GREELEY.

The White Elephants of Siam.

The oldest of the white elephants of Siam, which was born in 1770, died in its temple at Bangkok, in November last. Every one knows that this famous white elephant, before whom a whole people bow the knee, is the emblem of the kingdom of Siam. Each white possesses its palace, a vessel of gold, and harness resplendent with jewels. Several mandarins are attached to its service, and feed it with cake and sugar cane. The King is the only person before whom it bends the knee, and a similar salutation is rendered it by the monarch. The deceased idol has been accorded a magnificent funeral. A hundred Buddhist priests officiated at the ceremony. The three surviving white elephants preceded by trumpets and followed by an immense concourse of people, accompanied the funeral car to the bank of the Menam, where the King and his noble lords received the mortal remains, which were transported to the opposite bank for burial. A procession of thirty vessels figured at that curious ceremony. All the floating houses, ranging in double file on the Menam, to the number of six hundred, were adorned with flags of all colors and symbolical attributes.
